TITLE 41 AMERICAN SAMOA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE, CHAPTER 11

Pursuant to the American Samoa Code Annotated (ASCA) 4.1001 et seq, 41.0205 and 41.0207, the Attorney General adopt the immigration rules set forth in Title 41 of the American Samoa Administrative Code (ASAC), Chapter 11 regarding the American Samoa Entry Permit Waiver Program.

The immigration rules are set out below.

RULE 2023-12 (American Samoa Administrative Code) creates new rules under ASAC 41.1101, 41.1102, 41.1103, 41.1104 and 41.1105.

41.1101: American Samoa Entry Permit Waiver Program:

A. The EPWP allows citizens of select countries to travel to American Samoa without obtaining an Entry Permit for stays up to 30 days or less for tourism and business purposes.

B. To be eligible for entry under the EPWP, a traveler must provide:

1. Non-Expired Machine Readable Passport that must be valid for at least 6 months after planned departure from American Samoa.
2. Confirmed round-trip ticket to point of origin or onward passage.
3. Written confirmation that traveler will be staying at a hotel or has lodging secured with a host while visiting American Samoa and that traveler or host will be responsible for all public debts of the traveler including but not limited to LBJ hospital medical expenses. The host must be at least 21 years old and is the owner of the home or lessee of an apartment in which traveler is staying in American Samoa.
4. Traveler did not violate the laws of American Samoa, the country of origin or other jurisdictions which are cause for exclusion or deportation.
5. Payment of US $40.00 processing fee:
 - a. The above documents and payment must be provided to the Office of the Attorney General or the Immigration Office at least three business days before travel. Payment may be made at the Immigration Office or the online link: <https://www.legalaffairs.as.gov>.

- b. If the requirements are satisfied, the Office of the Attorney General will issue an OK to Board document allowing entry into American Samoa without an entry permit.
- c. Upon arrival at the port of entry, the traveler must present a copy of the OK to Board document to the Immigration officer.

C. Eligibility under the EPWP does not guarantee approval of an EPWP application or entry into American Samoa. Immigration officers may refuse entry at the port of entry based on American Samoa laws. A traveler who poses a threat to the welfare, health, safety, or security of American Samoa will be denied entry and placed back on the arriving vessel to be returned to the point of origin.

D. Travelers entering American Samoa to board fishing vessels or other commercial vessels are NOT eligible for the EPWP.
